Single user licenses are licensed per developer. Concurrent user licenses can be shifted between developers. The maximum of licenses used at same time is defined by the number of purchased concurrent user licenses. Products can be used on all platforms where JDK 1.5 is installed. With the purchase of products and/or upgrades an email support for actual versions is covered. Yearly update subscriptions provides regular patches and product updates. Software delivery and billing will be handled electronically via email. All prices are net prices, and can be changed without notice in advance. All listed purchasable products and upgrades can also be purchased at our online shop at <http://www.gentleware.com>. All credit cards are accepted. For placing orders via a bank transfer or check we have payment terms of 30 days net. Purchase orders can also be sent to fax number +49 40 2442 5331. In this case we charge an additional handling fee of EUR 15,00 to cover banking/delivery fees. Rent Subscriptions are handled only through our online shop. For further information please contact us via phone at +49 40 2442 5330 or via email at sales@gentleware.com.
